December 2022 News and Upcoming Events

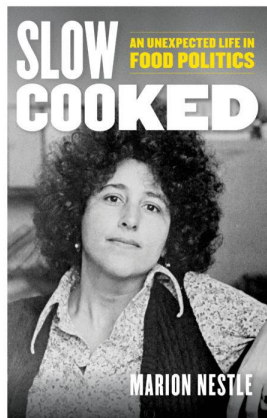

Hello everyone! We're winding down for 2022 (feels good to be saying that!) and at the same time gearing up and planning events and books we'll read for 2023. If you have ideas we'd love to hear from you! In the meantime, we wish you all delicious and festive year-end celebrations!

Tune in to Slow Food Santa Fe Out Loud on Dec 3rd 10 am and learn about Terra Madre

Join Slow Food Santa Fe Out Loud on KSFR (101.1 FM and streaming live on KSFR.org) at 10 am MT on Saturday December 3rd for our conversation with Sally Thomson. Sally is a freelance documentary and fine art photographer based here in Santa Fe and we're talking with her about her attendance as a Slow Food USA delegate this past September at Slow Food International's signature event, Terra Madre, held once every 2 years in Italy. The theme of this year's Terra Madre was "Regeneration" – a way to reconnect with the world around us and take action to recover our ecosystems, communities, and our health. You can check out some of Sally's wonderful photographs here.

Join us for our January Dinner and a Book

We're taking December off for the holidays, starting again on Monday January 23rd at 6 pm MT for a discussion about Slow Cooked: an unexpected life in food politics by Marion Nestle. In this engrossing memoir, Nestle reflects on how she achieved late-in-life success as a leading advocate for healthier and more sustainable diets. Email slowfoodsantafe@gmail.com for information on how to join.

Santa Fe Farmers' Market

The farmers' market is filled with wonderful produce, and is also a great place to shop for healthy, festive and unique gifts. Check out the What's in Season? calendar for what's in season now at the market and what's coming up. The Saturday market is open year-round and the Tuesday market is open through Dec 20th.

2022 Snailblazer Awards

Join Slow Food USA at 3 pm MT on Sunday, December 10th for the 2022 Snailblazer Awards, a virtual gathering to honor ten food leaders across every link of the food chain. Tickets (minimum $10) here.

For those of you who have been wanting to join Slow Food USA but haven't yet done so, you'll have another opportunity to join for as little as $1 on Dec 9th, the final Give What You Can Day of 2022! Note: the link will only be activated on Dec 9th. Make sure to choose Santa Fe as your local chapter.
